Dear Tony,

I'm pleased to share that, thanks to your support and that of more than 110 of our classmates, we surpassed our goal of collecting 60 gifts for the Alumni Fund between December 5th and December 31st, raising more than $115,000 in new current-use support for Yale.

In recognition of this achievement, I'm honored to name the Class of 1964 60th Reunion Scholarship. The first recipient will be Sude Ulu, a first-year student and resident of Timothy Dwight College. If you would like to learn more about Sude, you can find a profile of her here.

Your generous contribution counts toward our 60th Reunion Gift, bolsters our class's philanthropic legacy, and provides immediate funding for Yale's core needs. I appreciate your dedication to the university's mission of nurturing the next generation of leaders and innovators, and I am grateful to have you as a classmate.

Looking ahead to our Reunion in May, I eagerly anticipate reconnecting to reminisce about the past and celebrate the enduring camaraderie within our class.

Sincerely,

Bob
